A Stunning Venue

From the moment you enter the GA Terminal, you and your guests will be impressed with the modern, airy architecture and the contemporary style of the location. The lobby floor features an open layout which can be customized for many different events—from concerts to award ceremonies. In the center of the lobby is the original artwork, Dream of Flight—large stainless steel sculptures looking wistfully to the heavens, represented by a mobile made of 1,000 pieces of cut stained glass. A dramatic staircase connects you to the sweeping layout of the second floor mezzanine. The GA Terminal's 50-person capacity conference room is accessed from the lobby.

The mezzanine is an encircling balcony that overlooks the lobby below. It is spacious enough for tables, a band or many other layouts. The outdoor balcony overlooks many general aviation planes and one of RDU's runways. During warm weather guests can enjoy the balcony.

The GA Terminal's special event staff are trained to ensure an elegant and memorable event.
